

Long Run Exploration Ltd. is a Calgary based intermediate exploration and production company focused on light oil and natural gas development in Western Canada. We are currently looking to fill the following position:

Senior Financial Analyst

Reporting to the Manager, Financial Reporting, this position will be responsible for:

- Assisting with the preparation of quarterly and annual financial reports;
- Preparing monthly calculations for items such as depletion, deferred tax, interest expense, unrealized gains/losses on financial derivatives, ARO, and gains/losses on sale of assets;
- Preparing internal documents used for analyzing monthly results and operations for senior management;
- Liaising with and managing information requests from external auditors;
- Researching and assessing the impact of new accounting standards, business developments and new government regulations on financial reporting and disclosure, including related technical accounting memos/position papers;
- Preparing a quarterly reporting package for the parent company;
- Completing Statistics Canada Surveys;
- Preparing the annual ESTMA filing;

Qualifications:

- CPA, CA designation;
- Thorough understanding of IFRS and Canadian public reporting;
- Exceptional analytical skills and attention to detail.