

Long Run Exploration Ltd. is a Calgary based intermediate exploration and production company focused on light oil and natural gas development in Western Canada. We are currently looking to fill the following position:

Environmental & Regulatory Coordinator

- Develop, implement and support Corporate Environment programs and initiatives
- Prepare and distribute internal environmental alerts, memos and correspondence
- Manage regulatory requirements and programs including:
 - Greenhouse Gas Emissions (GHG)
 - Fugitive Emissions program
 - Non-Pollutant Regulatory Index (NPRI)
 - Multi-Sector Air Pollutant regulations (MSAPR)
 - Annual SCVF/PIT Testing
 - Annual Benzene/DEOS reporting
 - Monthly and Annual EPEA reporting
 - EPEA Renewals
 - Fugitive Emissions planning & reporting
- Assist with regulatory audits as required
- Manage AER inspection and investigation tracking
- Data entry and submission into AER DDS system/OneStop: enforcement follow up, flaring/venting notifications, etc.
- Support the Waste Management program
- Assist with HSE documentation updates including the Corporate Environmental Program, Corporate Health and Safety Manual, Waste Manifests, etc.
- Support and provide input for the HSE quarterly summary report
- Create and deliver Environment and Regulatory training materials and presentations
- Prepare abandonment and reclamation liabilities summary for Acquisitions/Divestitures
- Understanding of LLR and how to reduce
- Understanding of Alberta's Climate Leadership Plan (Carbon Levy)
- Liaise between LRE and regulatory bodies

Qualifications:

- Must have a minimum 10 years' environment and regulatory experience in the oil and gas industry
- Candidate must have solid understanding and knowledge of the current regulations
- Motivated to learn and provide direction on new and upcoming regulatory updates and changes
- Oil & gas experience in drilling, completions and/or production operations would be an asset
- The ability to work as a team member
- Motivated to support all aspects of LRE operations
- Must be able to manage time and priorities
- Must be able to take direction as well as add professional input into decisions and provide direction